Reservations at All-New South Carolina RV Resort Opens Today Book Your Summer 2019 Vacation at Carolina Pines' Cottages and RV Sites

Myrtle Beach, S.C., Jan. 07, 2019 – Sun RV Resorts today announces it has officially opened its reservations for its newest Signature Sun RV Resort, Carolina Pines. Located off the intersection of State Route 90 and State Route 22 near Myrtle Beach, South Carolina, Carolina Pines offers rates starting as low as $60 for RV sites and $129 for a Carolina Cottage.

In addition to competitive resort prices, Carolina Pines allows a two-night minimum for pre-booking compared to a week minimum like other resorts in the area. Nestled between the Loblolly and Longleaf South Carolina native pine trees, the upscale resort will feature large sites with full hook-ups capable of accommodating today's luxury RV's.

"We've had wonderful feedback and excitement about the property already," expressed Mindy Kirtley, RVP of Sun RV Resorts. "Carolina Pines is going to be a game changer for RV resorts on the east coast, and we can't wait to introduce our guests to the Signature Sun RV Resort experience for the first time."

Carolina Pines is unlike anything, yet close to everything, sitting in the heart of nature while providing visitors easy access to everything the iconic Myrtle Beach region has to offer. Best of all, the resort will offer shuttle services to beaches and attractions up and down the Grand Strand.

No RV? No problem. Carolina Pines offers the option of vacation rentals providing a different way to camp ranging from cozy one-room cabins to fully appointed vacation homes. The Carolina Cottages truly create a home away from home vacation experience.

No matter how you stay, Carolina Pines offers several different amenities throughout the year, providing a one-of-a-kind getaway experience. At the resort, guests will be able to experience a unique take on Southern hospitality, with the ability to find your inner daredevil at the waterpark, play a round of mini-golf, cool off with a cold beer, and then revel in some down-home dining, all without leaving the resort.
